

Mr Julian Mixon

Mr Mixon is a finance and investment professional with more than 19 years' experience in diverse sectors, including financial services, technology, mergers and acquisitions and venture capital. He is a chartered accountant and a chartered global management accountant. He is currently as an associate fund principal at the Public Investment Corporation as part of its Early-Stage Fund team, before which he worked at Naspers Foundry, a South Africa-focused venture capital fund. He started his career doing his articles at Microsoft South Africa as a trainee accountant.

Mr Mixon holds a BCom in Accounting and an honours degree in Financial Management from the University of Johannesburg. He also has an honours degree in Accounting (CTA) from the University of South Africa.